

AASA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does AASA typically stand for in educational administration?

- A) American Association of School Administrators
- B) Academic Assessment and Standards Authority
- C) Advanced Administrative Skills Assessment
- D) American Association of Student Advisors

2. What is a primary responsibility of school administrators?

- A) Teaching all subjects directly
- B) Leading and managing educational programs and staff
- C) Maintaining school buildings only
- D) Handling student transportation exclusively

3. Which leadership skill is essential for effective school administration?

- A) Avoiding all difficult decisions
- B) Communication and collaborative decision-making
- C) Working in isolation
- D) Following only traditional methods

4. What is a key component of instructional leadership?

- A) Avoiding classroom observations
- B) Supporting teachers' professional development and student achievement
- C) Focusing only on administrative tasks
- D) Delegating all educational decisions

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More AASA Questions and Answers FREE, AASA Online Prep Training, AASA Exam, AASA Study Guide, AASA Flashcards, AASA Quizzes visit:

AASA Practice Test