

CHC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CHC typically stand for in healthcare contexts?

- A) Community Health Center
- B) Certified Health Coordinator
- C) Clinical Health Care
- D) Comprehensive Health Coverage

2. What is the primary mission of Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs)?

- A) To provide specialized surgical services only
- B) To provide comprehensive primary healthcare services to underserved populations regardless of ability to pay
- C) To conduct medical research exclusively
- D) To offer luxury healthcare services

3. Which population groups are typically served by Community Health Centers?

- A) Only insured patients
- B) Low-income individuals, uninsured patients, Medicaid recipients, and medically underserved populations
- C) Only elderly patients
- D) Exclusively pediatric patients

4. What services are typically offered at Community Health Centers?

- A) Emergency surgery only
- B) Primary care, preventive services, dental care, mental health services, and pharmacy services
- C) Cosmetic procedures exclusively
- D) Laboratory testing only

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More CHC Questions and Answers FREE, CHC Online Prep Training, CHC Exam, CHC Study Guide, CHC Flashcards, CHC Quizzes visit:

CHC Practice Test