

LADC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does LADC stand for in addiction counseling?

- A) Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor
- B) Legal Advocacy and Defense Consultant
- C) Licensed Administrative Data Coordinator
- D) Local Addiction Development Center

2. What is a primary goal of addiction counseling?

- A) To help clients achieve and maintain recovery from substance use disorders
- B) To provide legal advice on drug charges
- C) To prescribe medication for addiction
- D) To conduct criminal background investigations

3. Which therapeutic approach is commonly used in addiction treatment?

- A) Cognitive Behavioral Therapy and Motivational Interviewing
- B) Surgical interventions
- C) Physical therapy exclusively
- D) Financial counseling only

4. What is an important ethical principle in addiction counseling?

- A) Maintaining client confidentiality and avoiding dual relationships
- B) Sharing client information with family members without consent
- C) Providing counseling to close personal friends
- D) Guaranteeing successful treatment outcomes

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More LADC Questions and Answers FREE, LADC Online Prep Training, LADC Exam, LADC Study Guide, LADC Flashcards, LADC Quizzes visit:

LADC Practice Test